P.C.:-

By this petition, the petitioner seeks a mandamus directing the respondents to grant approval to her appointment made in the year 1993.

2. During the pendency of this petition, the services of the petitioner were terminated. On termination of the services the question of approval has become redundant. On the date of the termination, therefore, the petition was rendered infructuous.

3. The petitioner is seeking to pursue the remedy available to her against the order of termination, which remedy, when over, may give cause of action to he in relation to the grant of approval. As of today, petition is liable to be dismissed as infructuous. The petitioner shall be at liberty to take appropriate steps in the event of termination being set aside.

Petition is accordingly disposed of.
